

REDUCING PRISON POPULATION

INVITATION

19TH APRIL 2016 | H. 9:45/13:00

FACULTY OF LAW, KU LEUVEN CAMPUS BRUXELLES
STORMSTRAAT 2 (HERMES I BUILDING),
1000 BRUXELLES, BELGIUM (10-minute walk from Bruxelles Central Station)

REDUCING PRISON POPULATION PROJECT: INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

This seminar is free of charge, but advance registration is required by sending an email (with your name, surname and institutional affiliation) to progetti@apg23.org by Friday 15 April 2016.

Due to strict security measures, all participants are kindly requested to bring a recent piece of identification (passport, ID).

PROMOTED BY

With the support of the International Society for Criminology and the Leuven Institute of Criminology, Faculty of Law, University of Leuven

With the financial support of the Criminal Justice Programme of the European Union

9:15

Registration of participants and welcome

Session 1

Deprivation of liberty as a measure of last resort

9:45

The European legal and policy framework on non-custodial measures

Stephan Parmentier and Piero Sullo,

International Society for Criminology and University of Leuven

10:15

Comments

Jesca Benerer,

Legal Officer DG Justice, European Commission

10:35

Questions and Answers

10:50

Presentation of project 'Art stories to give up crime'

Association Art Without Bars, Belgium11:00

Health break

Session 2

Promising practices and innovative approaches to overcome custody

11:30

Reducing Prison Populations in Europe: key results and main recommendations

Sara Zanni & Giorgia Stefani,

Associazione Papa Giovanni XXIII, Rimini

12:00

Houses of detention, a community oriented form of custody

Hans Claus,

prison director, Dendermonde

12:20

European Communities for Restoration, an ECOR project

Tobias Merckle,

ECOR, Stuttgart

12:40

Questions and Answers

12:50

Concluding comments

Stephan Parmentier,

International Society for Criminology and University of Leuven

13:00

Close